Arnold Palmer Golf Management To Manage The Medallion Club

COLUMBUS (December 29, 2010) – Arnold Palmer Golf Management, owned by Century Golf Partners, announced that it has entered into a long-term agreement to manage The Medallion Club in Westerville, Ohio, beginning January 1, 2011.

The Medallion Club has been designed for the entire family to enjoy. With 27 golf holes, 5 tennis courts, an Olympic-size pool, a 58,000 square foot clubhouse offering wide-ranging social, recreational and fitness activities, The Medallion Club provides an exceptional venue for its members and guests.

“We look forward to working with the members and becoming a part of the Westerville community,” said Jim Hinckley, Century Golf Partners’ President and CEO. “The Medallion Club is a beautiful club with a very bright future.”

Arnold Palmer Golf Management is one of the most experienced companies in the club management industry and manages private clubs and golf courses throughout the United States. The members of The Medallion Club will be entitled to participate in “Palmer Advantage”, a reciprocal club and travel benefit, which provides concierge services and allows members access to private clubs, resorts and golf courses throughout the U.S. and internationally.

“Exceptional qualifications and a track record of success were key factors in selecting Arnold Palmer Golf Management to manage The Medallion Club,” cited the ownership group. “We are very pleased to have them on board.”
